

DR. CLEAVELAND'S CASE.

CITY MAGISTRATE GLOSTER DENIES THE PETITION

Judge Cowing denied yesterday the application on behalf of Dr. Tremont W. Cleveland for the quashing of the indictment, which charged against him that Cleveland's counsel argued that the defendant had been in property owned by him, because the case was still awaiting an examination before Magistrate Olmsted in the Criminal Court.

The Grand Jury took a hand yesterday by passing a resolution calling for the production before it of all the papers in the case then in Magistrate Olmsted's hands, and the grand jury issued a copy of the resolution. Magistrate Olmsted had already set the hearing before him for yesterday.

In the case came before him Magistrate Olmsted quoted a decision by a Supreme Court Judge showing that in case a prisoner up for hearing in a police court should be indicted by the grand jury, the papers in the case were rendered nugatory. He then endorsed the papers in accordance with the decision.

He wished to add that "the straight" said Dr. Cleaveland in explanation. "I believe that either the District Attorney or the counsel for Dr. Cleveland should take this case, and I am sure that the two will determine once for all how far a Magistrate has a right to use his discretion."

Breach Advertisements.*Newark Advertisements.*Advice About Bedding.

Now that the Winter is wearing away, every housekeeper should look to her bedding. It may be that some of it has not been renewed for years. Such neglect is horrible. Perspiration (and perhaps disease) has percolated through the ticking to an extent that makes the bed dangerous to sleep in. The laundry receives the sheets, pillow cases and blankets at frequent intervals; why shouldn't the mattresses and other bedding receive the attention that cleanliness and health demand? Call at our store or send us a postal card and we will despatch an expert bedmaker to advise with you in the matter. We make every mattress we sell, and everything we promise to put in it you will find there. We guarantee every thread, every hair and every feather. We can also repair and reupholster your old furniture and make it entirely as good as new.

White Drawings Mattress 19.00, instead of 29.25.

We will sell 50 (only) pure white Drawings Mattress, 40 lbs., best ticking, one or two parts, at 19.00; usual price, 29.25.

NOTE.—This is a pure white hair, nice and long and very elastic. Never before has this quality of hair been sold at this price.
